which contained all that could be found in the Virginia records and elsewhere concerning the European antecedents of the Quisenberrys in America, together with a good deal of more modern data relating to it. This is in nature of a supplement to Mr. Quisenberry's former work, and is devoted more especially to the European antecedents of the family. The Quisenberry name is taken far back into Germany, but the evidence which comes down from the grandfather of the Virginia emigrant is connected with the noble old county of Kent in England, the home of the Rebellion of the grand old Wat Tyler, and the noble family of the Wyatts. Mr. Quisenberry has shown great interest and indefatigable industry in compiling these splendid family records.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF SAMUEL ROWELL, and notices of some of his descendants. By Rowland Rowell, Manchester, N. H.

This is a simple record of typical New England people. To illustrate how families intertwine, it may be stated that in one hundred and twenty years since Samuel Rowell and Sarah Dunstan were married, they have had descendants under one hundred and fourteen names. The book is neatly prepared and printed.

FROM BULL RUN TO BULL RUN; Or, FOUR YEARS IN THE ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA, containing a detailed account of the career and adventures of the Baylor Light Horse, Company B, Twelfth Virginia Cavalry, C. S. A., with Leaves from My Scrap-book. By George Baylor.

This is a handsomely printed book, containing 413 pages and 60 illustrations. It was written by Capt. George Baylor, of Charles Town, W. Va., and is an interesting description of the career of "The Baylor Light Horse," Company B, Twelfth Virginia Regiment, Laurel Brigade, Army of Northern Virginia. With a few brief intermissions, Capt. Baylor had command of this company from its reorganization, in 1862, to within a few weeks of the close of the war. He gives a clear and faithful chronicle of the many battles and raids in which the company engaged, which are supplemented by official reports of the same affairs from Federal commanders. Some of the latter are amusing, in that they grossly exaggerated the Confederate forces by which very frequently they were badly defeated. "Baylor's Light Horse" was composed largely of the flower of the youth of Jefferson and adjacent counties, and it had the unique distinction of having been granted a fifteen days' furlough by order of Gen. Robert E. Lee for a brilliant charge made at Rappahannock bridge in 1863, and which was witnessed by the distinguished commander of the Army of Northern Virginia.
